Sent	To: [REDACTED] Ben Graham To: [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	6/15/2015 11:09:47 AM(UTC-4)		Sent	Keith Karen is working above the 25 allowable hours for a part time person; I think she needs to take my full time spot for now so she is freed up; then I would like to offer Ernst a part time position in my office; I have a set of projects that we have not been getting to and I don't see even with the addition of Karen that these items will become a focus so I need to know what amount of dollars I hVe left and can I afford him for 12345 days? And then we need to decide if Cindy wants him for some of the remainder if I can't afford him full time. I would like to see what is left in budget tomorrow and then I can give him a call and we can go from there. Thanks!

Inbox	From: [REDACTED] Direction: Incoming	6/1/2015 10:04:39 PM(UTC-4)		Read	of 2011 now, the password is never being put into a transparent or forthcoming with anyone. You should have seen the back and forth texts that I had with asshole. He kept adding Cindy into the conversation and I had to keep taking her back out. He even tried to tell me that I needed to look at what actions or contributions I might have had that led to certain events! I know why he did it, which just prove how much of a f-ing shithead he is.

Even if I get it, it would not bode well for me to release that. I plan on talking to Cindy tonight and telling her this: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - I need her to log into verizon and show me her phone account. This will show me whether or not they have called each other. Which I assume they have. - is she one bit regretful or remorseful? I haven't seen that yet, all I've seen is fear that this might go public. - if she's talked to him, first why the f? Then what has his family's reaction? Why hasn't he reached out to me to apologize? Dan said the honest approach needs to be taken. Todd hasn't taken ownership of anything for 20 some years and he's not about to let him slip out this time. If necessary he said he'd come out and make a statement. Of course, they want to know what he knows and go from there. They also said that his marriage has been on the rocks for years and that they've sort of talked about divorcing once the kids are older.

Inbox	From [REDACTED] Joe Gamrat Direction: Incoming	5/21/2015 7:03:58 PM(UTC-4)		Read	They really wanted my background and what I've seen. They know it's going on and are trying to figure out their best plan of attack. They are meeting with Ben tonight and are planning (right now) to confront Todd over the weekend at the family camp.

I left the details that I did not intimately know to you to tell if you wanted. I said I am 100% aware that they had/having an affair, but you should to Joe so I don't say anything that is not true or would be conjecture.

Inbox	From [REDACTED] Joe Gamrat Direction: Incoming	5/20/2015 3:56:01 PM(UTC-4)		Read	So how does that change your meeting? He is sick and demented. What he is trying to do is throw me under the bus for having access a couple of weeks ago to his Nationbuilder...and apparently sending this out, probably. He has more problems than I ever thought. Sick sick sick.

Inbox	From [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Incoming	5/17/2015 11:16:26 PM(UTC-4)			2:52 PM text from [REDACTED] (Cline) has been forwarded. Denied it, apologized for it, will be seeing a counselor (as will I). I have asked her to call Todd with me present and tell him that it is done. She won't do it with me present, so I'm a little unnerved by that. Also, that all interaction needs to cease. I can't see that happening yet, though I'm pushing for it. She and he appear to be in damage control and trying to keep it to a very small circle. I will probably confront him personally. Please keep confidential but I appreciate your prayers.

2025/11/11 11:41:33 AM (UTC-4) Brightheart to Cindy's office for a sec then had me ride elevator down with him. Said he's sad Josh is leaving. Still hoping he decides to stay. Didn't mean any animus in board of ed email. Said it may have come though badly in email. I said it was a lot more then that. That email was just tipping point. He said josh says it started in November. Josh said it was now "all about him (todd)" which he said "it kind of is because me because I'm the rep." He said it was us having to take on the administering of a part of his life which before we had a buffer with Georgeann. Seemed to think that adjustment was part of the cause. I said there is a lot more to discuss and he said yes. We're having staff meeting Thursday afternoon.

She can't figure out what I did...wow. she has no clue what goes on in that office. Still feel I made the right decision.

Some of what she said is true, but my heart is not in it because he/she are diva/dicks and they act like they are having an affair.

Case 1:18-cv-00874-GJP-PJG ECF No. 17-15 filed 12/28/18 PageID.1305 Page 91 of 254
Sent	To: [REDACTED] Ben Graham To: [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing		4/14/2015 10:06:37 PM(UTC-4)		Spoke with Cindy. She said josh resigned: - his heart wasn't in it - family time was an issue, didn't get home until jase was going to bed - had issues with some emails that Todd sent and when reading through them you could see that the tone was not as it was interpreted - he is a socializer - still not sure what exactly Josh did - we were always at odds - he doesn't seem to fit in, heck, I (Cindy) don't fit in - communication was an issue, Cindy felt communication was an issue from him and them since she was never in the office and always busy - part of march madness (staff exodus) - I think he read some bills and was working on CON but - Todd stayed back and met with him for about an hour or so and prayed with him and tried to work something out but I don't think it is really fair to convince someone to stay if they're not in to it. - driving was an issue - Cindy's short answers and josh thinking they were maybe Cindy's passive aggressiveness; Cindy said they were probably because of her driving while answering. - not sure what we will do, it may be a good thing.

Todd apologized to Cindy for Dan and possibly Ray questioning his commitment to his family. He brought them along but they distill it down to Todd and then "what they see, and want to see, and how they see the world". He wrote a diatribe to his brother. Cindy told him that she will continue to pray for him but that "the family part is harder and I will be praying on all of that for you."

Sent	To [REDACTED] Ben Graham To [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	3/21/2015 6:35:12 PM(UTC-4)		Sent	Todd and Keith, I would like to send the following text to Steve Carra and wanted your thoughts on it: Steve, as things will start to get very hot and heavy soon I just wanted to take a minute to say thanks for your work the last few weeks. You had mentioned having availability until about mid April. Please work out a date with Keith with what makes sense with wrapping up your duties at the office and making yourself available for your caddie job. Feel free to contact us in the fall and we can see where things are at at that time. If you'd like to volunteer and help with anything over the summer please let us know. Thanks again!

Inbox	From [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Incoming	2/17/2015 9:19:24 AM(UTC-5)		Read	Keith Can you answer these for TC...So what is the deal with this bill? Is it a good direction or bad? Liberty or no? Are there arguments I should know or make? Are there questions I need to bring. Also on my amendment issues do we need to bring the amendments? Do I need to speak on my amendments? If so how does that happen? And what is the process for that to happen? When in the bill process do amendments get addressed? And how?

Sent	To [REDACTED] Ben Graham To [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	2/16/2015 12:00:34 PM(UTC-5)		Sent	Hey Keith, I sent an email about a post I'd like to do today regarding my sunset bill and also I don't see a Roger on Todd's amendment request. Checking to see if you saw these and are on it or are waiting to look at them tomorrow? We haven't really discussed how state paid days off work with the staff, so I am trying to get an understanding if you guys are still available for working on stuff outside the office or if these days are viewed as holidays where no work is expected to get done. It's good if we are all in the same page. I felt that going into this we were all on the same page that the first 3 - 6 months would be putting in extra hours either before, after, in district, or on weekends. We talked about that after we get our steps and processes worked out and got on top of things, the workload will likely settle down. So as we are in this first three months are we all still on that same page? Or have expectations changed somewhere along the line? And what then does that mean for the plethora of state paid holidays that happen? You had said you were available today for fundraising stuff but is that separate from the rest and what does that mean for Ben and Josh today? Again just trying to get to the same page as a team. Thanks!

Sent	To [REDACTED] Ben Graham To [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	2/9/2015 10:37:38 PM(UTC-5)		Sent	Keith FYI for tomorrow, looking at the schedule for tomorrow we won't get a chance to review legislation until 2:30. I'm hoping for some unexpected breaks but it doesn't look optimistic. Also I will need to eat at the 2:30 break so can we plan ahead to have someone bring some soup and salad so that it is ready then? I can leave money at the office. I am guessing Todd might be hungry by then too and maybe we can eat and talk legislation?

Sent	To [REDACTED] Ben Graham To [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	2/7/2015 8:48:40 PM(UTC-5)		Sent	Keith I talked to Wendy tonight about coming to the office, her surgery wAs postponed and I asked if she is still willing to come in full time and she is going to talk with her husband tomorrow to confirm that that would fit for them. If you feel like you me and Todd need to talk about it I am open to that. In my mind she would kind of be the counterpart to Josh and free you up from some of the committee meetings, help on legislation and research, graphics, some phones and admin, etc. if I am off on what you were thinking please let me know if you have other thoughts. It seems to me between me and Todd we have plenty of work that needs done on developing legislation and votes on upcoming legislation and all that messaging that comes with it all. Also Wendy said she would be willing to assist with setting up in district meetings for me. Let me know your thoughts and if it sounds about right or if I am off. Todd feel free to chime in as well. Thanks!

Sent	To [REDACTED] Ben Graham To [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	1/23/2015 5:35:01 PM(UTC-5)		Sent	From Cindy: I am going to need some scheduled down time each day that is not filled with calls, meetings, drop ins or busyness, also I will need scheduled time to review committee budgets and legislation that we will be voting on. I'd like time in the schedule to discuss with Todd the legislation we are voting on and also the legislation we are considering putting forward. All these times to me must get put in up front and first and then with what's left we can squeeze others in, but right now it is happening the other way around.

Sent	To [REDACTED] Ben Graham To [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	1/19/2015 8:08:27 AM(UTC-5)		Sent	Honestly, we need to talk about everyone's expectations. You two have not been around the office much, and this has affected us. Because my time card was not approved, I will now probably not receive my first paycheck until mid February. That is a lot of time to work essentially for free. these messages that we receive late at night and on weekends really are hurting the morale of the whole team - and some of the things said in email are downright hurtful. The fourth team member hasn't been helping with any admin tasks, has only come to one meeting, yet has the time to run for a state party office; yet we are being chastised for taking 2 hours of our free time for an "extracurricular activity"? it doesn't add up. We can all talk tomorrow but I need a day free of these kind of communications to wrap my head around this and also speak with Josh/Ben, neither of whom is in a good place right now.

Sent	To [REDACTED] Ben Graham To [REDACTED] Josh Cline Direction: Outgoing	1/19/2015 8:05:34 AM(UTC-5)		Sent	Also I am not sure when it will work to discuss the outside project stuff yet. There is a lot of stuff to get done and I don't want to have to take time away from work to discuss that stuff but yet it is really important that we are all on the same page to function as a team and through all this and to me I'm not seeing that we all are on our expectations for the next 6 months, year, and term. Already it seems that 5:00 is the head home time and in district functions have not been covered yet it seems extracurricular projects are happening. I'm just not sure when we can discuss this yet but we need to. I still haven't heard back from Josh or Ben as to their involvement either.

I was just thinking that it would be a great place for me to release the legislative plan RCMS on the 6th. But then realized it will be double hitting the people that will be blasted on it from Todd's side on the same day. I think we will continue to run into this. Since we are putting it out jointly is that okay? Any thoughts?
